4.2. Director Weems introduced Sharla Roberts, CMS/ Bureau of Strategic Sourcing.

POSTED BUSINESS

5.1. Ms. King talked about the process regarding waivers. Ms. King expressed to the Council that it will be up the Council members to discuss and make decisions on how to handle the three different waiver types and/or exceptions.
5.2. Ms. King followed up on questions regarding ethics that the Council members had presented during that morning new Council member orientation. Furthermore, Ms. King introduced the Ethics Officer, Mr. Jay Brown, who was present and available for questions.

- Council Chairman Malcolm Weems, Council members, and Deputy General Counsel Ms. Philina King discussed several Council member questions regarding vendor opportunities in contract procurement, solicitation process, and vendor participation, classification of waivers, emergency procurement, goals, and enforcement actions.
  - Malcolm Weems explained that although there are processes in place, he encourages the Council members to join sub-committees to streamline and create methodological processes to the processes in question.
  - Malcolm Weems expressed that vendor conferences are being looked at to encourage vendors’ relationships with the purpose to improve opportunities to all in contract procurement.
  - Sharla Roberts, CMS/ Bureau of Strategic Sourcing offered the opportunity for procurement training session for Council member who are interested on getting more familiar with the process.
  - Nadine Lacombe, CMS/ General Counsel stated that a procurement expert can hold a meeting with the Council to walk them through the solicitation process.

5.3. M/WBE Data Collection Report

Council Secretary Ruddy Ortiz and Susan Hartman presented August 2011 contract award report to the Council. Council members had questions on BEP goals as there were areas in the report that were blank. Ms. Hartman noted that those blank areas were fields that were recently added and therefore no data was there to be reported. Malcolm Weems noted that the percentages and goal setting were in the process of being set; therefore, when the numbers become available they will be populated in the report.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

6. Committee Updates

6.1. Exemption/Compliance Committee – Jesse Martinez, Chair Member asked about methods on approving or denying waiver requests. Ms. Hartman explained that those methods were identified on their specifications. Mr. Martinez asked that copies of waiver reports be brought before the Council so that they may review and make some suggestions.

6.2. Bonding Committee – Larry Ivory, Chair Member – No report available due to Chair Member not present during meeting.

6.3. Professional Services – Hedy Ratner, Chair Member asked for new members to join this subcommittee.

6.4. Policy/ Enforcement Committee – Beth Doria, Chair Member also encouraged new members to participate in this committee.
NEW BUSINESS

- Director Malcolm Weems introduced Ms. Sharron Matthews, Assistant Director to HFS. Ms. Matthews’s department responsibilities are: Management work group, Strategic Planning, Contract Monitoring, Internal Tracking, and Monitor Planning.

  - Ms. Matthews gave a presentation to the Council about how HFS has managed to increase and not only meet their goal but surpassed it by a significant amount. The Council members were provided with a copy of HFS weekly procurement spreadsheet. Ms. Matthews gave an overview of this weekly report and the process that takes place in order to timely monitor vendor’s performance in reaching their goals.
