DCFS Investigates Death of 7-month-old Lamya Hampton

CHICAGO – The Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) is conducting a thorough investigation into the death of 7-month-old Lamya Hampton of Chicago. DCFS is currently investigating Lamya’s mother for allegations of neglect. The department has taken protective custody of Lamya’s two siblings. DCFS has had no prior reports regarding this family.

We encourage anyone who suspects that a child is being abused or neglected to call our 24-hour, toll-free hotline at 1-800-25-ABUSE (1-800-252-2873). All calls are confidential.
