ADMINISTRATOR’S TELECONFERENCE

Before the decision to indicate you is made, you have the opportunity to request a telephone conference with a Child Protection Administrator who has not been involved in the investigation. The Administrator’s Teleconference will allow you to respond to the allegations and the basis of the intent to indicate you.

You may have an attorney, or other representative, take part in the Administrator’s Teleconference. You will not be permitted to present or cross-examine witnesses, but you can give your own account of the incident and provide written statements and documents.

The date and time of your teleconference are _____/_____/_____, at _____ a.m ./ pm.

The phone number for your teleconference is (_____) _____.

The name of the Child Protection Administrator is _____

The Administrator’s Teleconference can be rescheduled for good cause. If you need to reschedule, call the Child Protection Administrator at the number listed above as soon as possible.

In case you have any technical difficulties, such as a busy signal, no answer, voicemail or other inability in reaching the Child Protection Administrator at your appointed date and time, you can call the Office of Child Protection Deputy Director at 217.785.4010 and tell them you are calling about an Administrator’s Teleconference and they will be able to assist you.

You do not have to take part in the Administrator’s Teleconference. The Administrator’s Teleconference provides you with an opportunity to present any information that you believe can or should help the Department make the most accurate decision regarding the current allegations of child abuse and/or neglect. However, if you choose not to participate in the teleconference, the “intent to indicate” will most likely result in a decision to indicate you for child abuse and/or neglect and place your name on the State Central Register.

After the Administrator’s Teleconference, you will be given written notice of the decision and an explanation of the expedited and regular administrative appeal process. If you do not participate in the Administrator’s Teleconference, you will be sent written notice of the Department’s final decision and an explanation of the expedited and regular administrative appeal process.

You retain your right to appeal the Department’s final decision whether or not you participate in the Administrator’s Teleconference.

Sincerely,

Child Protective Service Worker
