New Position Posting

LGBTQI Diversity Trainer
School of Social Work
Office of Child Welfare Partnerships and Workforce Development

Located in Chicago, Illinois

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign is seeking dynamic professionals to join a partnership between public university social work programs and the Office of Workforce Development.

The LGBTQI Diversity Trainer directs, coordinates, and manages statewide Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (IDCFS) programs, initiatives, and training to ensure that appropriate services are provided to LGBTQI youth.

The University of Illinois is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer that recruits and hires qualified candidates without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, disability or veteran status. For more information, visit <http://go.illinois.edu/EEO>.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Formulates, develops, and implements policies, procedures, and training to ensure consistency of services throughout the state; provides expert advice and consultation to child welfare staff, service providers, and community programs throughout the state to address the sensitive matter of sexuality or emerging sexuality of children and youth for whom IDCFS is responsible; provides interpretation regarding the IDCFS' LGBTQI policy; reviews and monitors program services to ensure compliance with all applicable policies and procedures; recommends specific actions designed to eliminate problems and attain agency goals and objectives; drives or travels to various locations throughout the state in the performance of duties.
- Serves as an IDCFS LGBTQI liaison to community providers and national support networks, providing advocacy for LGBTQI issues and working to facilitate greater respect for diversity through education.
- Develops culturally sensitive resources for placement and supportive services by identifying and affirming resources; provides input and advice into the preparation of new placements and preservation of current placements; provides consultation to staff regarding legal rights and issues affecting the LGBTQI population; provides input into the curriculum development of an LGBTQI training module and provides training to child welfare workers, residential staff, foster parents, and provider partners, and community organizations.
- Provides guidance to IDCFS staff and POS regarding legal rights, identity processes, and available resources; works to raise self-awareness about attitudes or bias.
- Performs other duties as required or assigned which are reasonably within the scope of the duties enumerated above. Statewide travel is required.

Minimum Qualifications:

Requires Master's Degree in a Human Services field. Doctorate in a Human Services field is preferred. Requires three years of administrative human services experience. Must have significant experience advocating for and working directly with LGBTQI youths and young adults, developing and presenting training curricula for staff working with LGBTQI youth and families, and the ability to develop resources for youths in care. Requires possession of a valid driver's license.
