AGENDA

- I. Welcome
*For transparency and in accordance with our governing charter, attendance is taken at all committee and workgroup meetings to account for who is present and participating. All participating parties (voting members or public) are required to announce their presence upon joining the meeting. During times where a web conference option is offered, and you join after the check-in portion of the meeting, please state your name and role in the chat box. The chair(s) will also be monitoring the participant list to ensure all parties are accounted for in the minutes. ***
