COMPLAINANT INFORMATION SHEET
(For All Cases not related to Housing Discrimination)

Office Use Only:	Control No:	Inv. Init.
------------------	-------------	------------

Date: _____

Instructions: Read this entire form and all of the instructions carefully before completing. All questions should be answered, and you may use additional sheets if necessary. This form must be signed and dated on page 4, and postmarked or received by IDHR within 300 days of the date of the alleged discrimination. IDHR must establish if it has the right under the law to investigate your claim. If IDHR accepts your claim of discrimination, we will type your information on an official charge form. The official charge form must be signed under certification or notarized and returned to IDHR in a timely manner. THIS IS NOT A FORMAL CHARGE. If IDHR accepts your claim, we will send you an official typed charge form for signature.

NOTE: If your alleged claim of discrimination is related to Housing, e.g., in buying or renting a house or apartment, or experiencing a refusal to a request to modify your housing, please STOP and fill out an IDHR Housing Complainant Information Sheet (CIS).

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUES AND BASES YOU ARE REQUESTING IDHR TO INVESTIGATE

Each of your COMPLAINTS of discrimination must be composed of two parts: the ISSUE and the BASIS.
 The ISSUE is the harm or action that was taken against you. (Such as being discharged from your place of employment or being denied access to a public service.)
 The BASIS is the legally protected class you believe is the reason for the action that was taken against you.

IDHR can only investigate charges alleging specific BASES of discrimination:

Age (+40)	Ancestry	National Origin	Sexual Orientation	Physical Disability or Mental Disability (unrelated to ability to do the job)
Race	Pregnancy	Military Status	Sexual Harassment	Arrest Record (or criminal history record ordered expunged, sealed or impounded),
Sex	Religion	Citizenship Status	Order of Protection Status	Aiding and Abetting / Coercion (helping or forcing a person to commit discrimination)
Marital Status	Gender Identity	Unfavorable Military Discharge	Color (Complexion)	Conviction Record

Retaliation (complained about unlawful discrimination, filed a prior discrimination claim, or testified at a discrimination hearing)

Your Charge of Discrimination can have multiple COMPLAINTS.
 Your BASIS can be the cause of more than one ISSUE, and each ISSUE could have been caused by more than one BASIS.
 If your complaint is of SEXUAL HARASSMENT, RETALIATION, AIDING AND ABETTING, or COERCION, your Issue and Basis are the same.

The Illinois Human Rights Act limits who and what the IDHR can investigate:

- In Employment: Unfair Employment Practices (such as political affiliations, personality conflicts, etc.) or unfair Union Practices unless such actions are alleged to be for one or more of the Bases listed above.
 - In Public Accommodations: charges against the Federal Government, Federal Officials, Prison Facilities; Educational Programs or Institutions related to curriculum content or course offerings.
- For more information, visit www2.illinois.gov/dhr.

IDHR provides interpreters upon request for sign language and for languages other than English. If a non-English speaking party chooses to secure their own interpreter, the interpreter must be 18 years of age or older and able to communicate effectively in both languages.

Notice to complainant on release of identity and personal information

The Illinois Human Rights Act ("Act"), 775 ILCS 5/1-101 et seq., and Section 2520.330 of IDHR's Rules and Regulations, 56 Ill. Admin. Code, Ch. II, Section 2520.330, require a charge to contain certain information in such detail as to substantially apprise the parties of the time, place, and facts with respect to the alleged civil rights violation. Pursuant to the Department's Rules and Regulations (2 Ill. Admin Code, Ch. X, Section 926.210), anyone who submits information to IDHR in connection with a discrimination charge should take notice and be aware of the following. During the Department's investigation:

- (a) All contents and files maintained by IDHR pertaining to charges shall be confidential and not subject to public disclosure. Relevant exceptions are:
- (1) the parties and non-parties to a charge may inspect the file at any time subsequent to the written notice of substantial evidence, default, or dismissal, administrative closure, or approval of terms of settlement by the Human Rights Commission ("Commission");
 - (2) after the filing of a Complaint with the Commission or the institution of judicial proceedings involving a charge, the Director may release information pertaining to the charge if such information is requested of IDHR or if the Director finds such information newsworthy, useful in education or training, relevant to an issue before the General Assembly, or similarly appropriate for disclosure.
- (b) Authorized personnel within IDHR analyze information that IDHR collects. This information may include personal information. IDHR staff may need to reveal some of the personal information to individuals outside the office in order to verify facts related to the charge, or to discover new facts which will help IDHR to determine whether the law has been violated. IDHR may need to disclose to Respondent correspondence that IDHR receives from Complainant or other sources.
- (c) After the completion of the Department's investigation, IDHR may release the Department's investigation file, which includes the identity and personal information of the parties pursuant to a Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request, a subpoena or a court order, and information submitted to or obtained by IDHR may also be revealed to persons outside of IDHR to enforce a Commission Order or a settlement agreement.
- (d) No person is required to file a charge with IDHR and reveal personal information to IDHR; however, if a person files a charge and IDHR cannot obtain the information needed to fully investigate the allegations in the charge, IDHR may close the case.

CONSENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

I have read the provided "Notice to Complainant" and I understand that: 1) If my charge is regarding an employment jurisdiction, IDHR may also file my charge of discrimination with EEOC if it has jurisdiction, and I authorize EEOC to look into the discrimination alleged above; 2) In the course of investigating my charge, IDHR will reveal my identity (including my name) and my personal information to named Respondent(s) in my charge to obtain facts and evidence regarding my charge; 3) I do not have to reveal my personal information to IDHR, but IDHR may close my charge if I refuse to reveal information needed to fully investigate my charge; 4) IDHR may be required by law, subpoena, court order, and/or FOIA request to disclose my charge and information in the Department's investigation file concerning my charge to persons outside of IDHR.

If IDHR takes a charge based on the information provided, I consent for IDHR to disclose my identity and personal information as necessary to process and investigate my charge, and I release IDHR from any liability whatsoever concerning disclosure of my identity and any personal information I provided to IDHR or IDHR obtained in processing my charge.

My signature below verifies the accuracy of the information provided herein and my consent and release as indicated above.
