Trail Tidbits:

French Canyon is one of the first out of the 18 canyons visitors see while walking the eastern trails from the Visitor Center. The Campanulla Trail is named after an Illinois wildflower which is fitting since this trail is a great sight to behold in the spring when woodland wildflowers are in bloom. Where French Canyon is 45 feet tall, Wildcat Canyon is the park's deepest canyon at 90 feet! LaSalle Canyon offers a bridal veil fall at 25 feet tall.

The overlooks provide beautiful, one of a kind views of the Illinois River from Beehive, Eagle Cliff, and Lovers Leap Overlooks. Catch glimpses of bald eagles, white pelicans, and more.
