I. POLICY

The Department shall establish a comprehensive orientation program for incoming individuals in custody at all correctional facilities that shall include the distribution of an orientation manual prepared in a format consistent throughout the Department.

II. PROCEDURE

A. Purpose

The purpose of this directive is to establish written guidelines for staff to ensure that an orientation program and manual is provided to each individual in custody admitted to the correctional facility.

B. Applicability

This directive is applicable to all correctional facilities within the Department.

C. Facility Reviews

A facility review of this directive shall be conducted at least annually.

D. Designees

Individuals specified in this directive of the level of Chief Administrative Officer or above may delegate stated responsibilities to another person or persons unless otherwise directed.

E. Definitions

Orientation status – the time that an individual in custody must serve being oriented to a new facility upon transfer, including transfer from a Reception and Classification Center.

Reception status – the time that an individual in custody must serve upon admission to the Department or upon return through a Reception and Classification Center as an escapee, a parole or mandatory supervised release violator or an individual who has violated adult transition or electronic monitoring rules.

Security Threat Group (STG) – individuals or groups of individuals, both within and outside of the Department, who pose a threat to the safety of the public, staff, individuals in custody and to the security and orderly management of a correctional facility.

F. General Provisions

	Illinois Department of Corrections Administrative Directive	Page 2 of 5
Number: 04.01.105	Title: Facility Orientation	Effective: 4/1/2022

1. An individual in custody's reception status at a Reception and Classification Center shall terminate once the individual in custody is transferred to an assigned correctional facility in accordance with Administrative Directive 05.07.102.
2. Upon transfer from any facility, including a Reception and Classification Center, the individual in custody shall be placed in orientation status and shall be housed separately from general population, when feasible, until completion of the orientation program.
3. A facility orientation program shall be presented to each incoming individual in custody and completed within seven (7) calendar days after admission, except in unusual circumstances. For a non-English speaking individual in custody, reasonable efforts shall be made for the orientation to be explained to him or her in a language he or she understands.
  - a. The program shall stress all pertinent aspects of the facility's expectations of each individual in custody and what an individual in custody may expect to derive from established programs and services. It shall include, where applicable, an explanation of orientation status, disciplinary rules, grievance procedures, the Security Threat Group avoidance renunciation policies and protective custody.
  - b. An orientation manual shall be provided to each individual in custody. The manual shall be explained to the individual in custody during the orientation program.

NOTE: Additional copies of the current orientation manual shall be maintained in the law library, restrictive housing and in each housing unit to allow for individuals in custody to review, upon request.

  - c. Individuals in custody shall receive written orientation materials and/or translations in their own language. Orientation materials may also be provided electronically, but individuals in custody in special management and restrictive housing must be provided information in a written format so that their access to information is not impeded by their custody status.
  - d. When a literacy problem exists, a staff member shall assist the individual in custody in understanding the material.
  - e. At the conclusion of the orientation program, each individual in custody shall be requested to sign an Orientation Receipt, DOC 0291, indicating he or she has participated in the orientation program and has obtained a copy of the manual. If an individual in custody refuses to sign the DOC 0291, the employee shall document the refusal on the DOC 0291 and sign and date.
  - f. The DOC 0291 shall be placed in the individual in custody's master record file or center file as appropriate.
4. The facility's orientation manual shall be maintained on a current basis.

G. Development of an Orientation Manual

An orientation manual shall be prepared in a format that addresses in detail, but shall not be limited to, the following areas:

1. General Introduction

This section of the manual shall provide general information concerning the mission and goals of the Department and fundamental information concerning the process for new
