

ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
Visitation Rules & Information

General Visitation Guidelines

Visitation is encouraged to help incarcerated men and women maintain ties with family, friends, and others in the community. Facilities may restrict visitation based on safety and security concerns, and during times of facility lockdowns; this information is available at <https://www2.illinois.gov/idoc/facilities/Pages/AllFacilities.aspx>. There may be times when a facility is not available for visits for numerous reasons. Visitors are encouraged to call the facility if traveling great distances to ensure visits are allowed.

Visitors may only visit one incarcerated individual at a time, unless prior written approval from the Chief Administrative Officer is obtained. Visitors may visit more than one Illinois Department of Corrections facility in a day.

Incarcerated men and women who are confined in restrictive housing status as a result of a serious staff assault, as defined by Departmental Rule 504.102A, shall only be allowed attorney, clergy and video visits unless restricted.

A proposed visitor who has been convicted of a criminal offense or who has criminal charges pending, including, but not limited to, an individual on bond, parole, mandatory supervised release, probation or an ex-incarcerated person, may visit a person in IDOC custody only with the written approval of the Chief Administrative Officer. A person currently on parole or probation must have the prior written approval of both the Chief Administrative Officer and the individual's parole agent or probation officer.

Once a prospective visitor is granted written visitation approval at any Illinois Department of Corrections facility, that permission remains in effect for all Illinois Department of Corrections facilities during the individual's current incarceration.

Check to see if the facility is on lockdown before leaving. You can call (877) 840-3220 for a listing of facilities currently on lockdown. If a facility is on lockdown, visitors should call the respective facility or access information regarding the facility under the Facilities link by choosing All Facilities from the dropdown (<https://www2.illinois.gov/idoc/facilities/Pages/AllFacilities.aspx>) to check for special visiting restrictions due to the lockdown status.

Visitor Approval

All visitors, excluding children, government officials and legal visitors, must be on the incarcerated person's approved visitation list in order to be granted a visit.¹ Incarcerated men and women are responsible for arranging their visits and notifying their visitors of their visiting status. To check if you are on the incarcerated individual's visitor list, you should write a letter to them to inquire. IDOC staff cannot tell you whether you are on a person's visitation list if you call the facility.

¹ Please note permission to allow visitation of minor children must be on file for minors between the ages of 12 and 17 who are not members of the incarcerated person's immediate family and for any minor children under the age of 12 regardless of relationship who is accompanied by a visitor who is not the minor's parent or guardian.
