Illinois Terrorism Task Force (ITTF) Chairs Meeting – August 22, 2012 - 10:00 a.m.

Introductions

Chairman Kauerauf introduced Colonel Don Buckley and Lieutenant Colonel Todd Kilby, Division of Operations, Illinois State Police.

Colonel Richard Jaehne introduced the new Illinois Fire Service Institute (IFSI) Director Royal Mortenson.

Chief of Staff Jennifer Ricker introduced Kevin High, the new Chief Fiscal Officer for Illinois Emergency Management Agency (IEMA),

Presentation

Assistant Director Joe Klinger acknowledged the retirement of Colonel Richard Jaehne and presented him with an Illinois Meritorious Service Award. He recognized Colonel Jaehne's vision, guidance, and numerous contributions to homeland security in the State of Illinois as a founding member of the Illinois Terrorism Task Force.

State Updates

Assistant Director Klinger provided an update on the Capstone 14 Workshop that was held August 14-16, 2012, at the Sears Holding Company. He also encouraged everyone to register for the Illinois Emergency Management Agency (IEMA) annual conference that is being held September 4-6, 2012, at the Crown Plaza Hotel, Springfield, Illinois. At the conclusion of the IEMA Conference, the VISION 2020 Homeland Security Summit will be held.

Briefings

Chief Aaron Kustermann, Statewide Terrorism and Intelligence Center, Illinois State Police, provided a briefing on Intelligence Trends.

Chairman Kauerauf asked that each committee provide a recommendation to Director Monken, Homeland Security Advisor, on where they believe ITTF should be going with the homeland security perspective. The Committees' perspective should include: What is the priority for the state of Illinois with the missions discussed (Pre-event, Initial Response 0-72 Hours, Incident Management 72+ Hours, and Recovery). He asked each committee to rank (1-4) the missions and then rank the projects within the missions. The committee rankings of prioritization will be provided to Director Monken and will be provided to the Committees and ITTF Members before the September 26, 2012, ITTF meeting. At that meeting the FY 2012 budget will be voted on.
