

ILLINOIS REVENUE

Move your life forward!

Technical Advisor Advanced Program Specialist

License to practice law in Illinois required

Good Work/Life Balance

Career Advancement Opportunities

Position Requirements:

A Technical Advisor Advance Program Specialist is a full-time position with benefits, an annual starting salary of $76,968 to $117,792. This position is a union title and receives annual step increases. This position requires graduation from a recognized law school, possession of a valid license to practice law in Illinois, and three years' professional experience in the area of program specialization.

To apply, please monitor the Illinois Department of Revenue postings. Once a position posts, mail a signed copy of your completed CMS-100 to the agency contact listed on the posting. You may also fax your completed and signed CMS-100 to the fax number provided on the posting.

To sign up for job alerts, email REV.IDORCareers@Illinois.gov.

37.5 hour full-time work week

Paid sick, personal, and vacation

Career advancement

Eligibility for Public Service Loan Forgiveness

Tuition reimbursement*

No CPA license required

for qualified and selected employees*

For more information, including access to the CMS-100 application, visit Tax.Illinois.Gov/Employment.