Other Credits which may be carried forward for five years

If an Illinois Income Tax credit which may be carried forward for five years is created or extended by the IITA after Schedule 1299-C has been published, and the Department is unable to provide a specific line for that credit to be reported on Schedule 1299-C, you may be able to use this line to report the credit.

Identify on this line Illinois Income Tax credits allowed by the IITA, which may be claimed on the 2017 Schedule 1299-C, and which may be carried forward for five years, but for which no specific line has been provided on this 2017 Schedule 1299-C.

Attach any documentation as required by the IITA, the Illinois Income Tax Regulations, or these instructions.

Do not report on these lines Illinois Income Tax credits

- which may be carried forward for a period of other than 5 years,
- which have expired and may not be claimed on this 2017 Schedule 1299-C, or
- for which a specific line has been provided elsewhere on this 2017 Schedule 1299-C.

Step 4: Figure your credit

This step allows you to figure the amount of credit you may use this year. Unused credit carryforward available from previous years is used first, beginning with the credit that will expire first.

Definitions

"Unused credit carryforward" is any credit amount that you earned in a previous year, less any credit that you applied to unpaid tax in following tax years, less any credit that has expired.

For example, if you earned a Dependent Care Assistance Program Tax Credit in 2015 in the amount of $5,000, and you used $2,000 credit on your 2015 tax return, you had $3,000 left to carry forward for two years. On your 2016 tax return, you used $1,500. You now have $1,500 left to use on your 2017 tax return. This is your unused credit carryforward. On your 2017 Illinois Schedule 1299-C, Step 4, Line 4, you would enter $1,500. If you are not able to use all $1,500 on the 2017 return, you will forfeit the excess credit.

Lines 1 through 31 - Follow the instructions on the form.

Line 32 - Add Lines 32a through 32n. This is the amount of credit you may use this year. Enter the amount here and on your Form IL-1040, Line 18.
