

This letter discusses nexus. See Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S.Ct. 1904 (1992). (This is a GIL.)

September 29, 2009

Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter dated August 31, 2009, in which you request information. The Department issues two types of letter rulings. Private Letter Rulings ("PLRs") are issued by the Department in response to specific taxpayer inquiries concerning the application of a tax statute or rule to a particular fact situation. A PLR is binding on the Department, but only as to the taxpayer who is the subject of the request for ruling and only to the extent the facts recited in the PLR are correct and complete. Persons seeking PLRs must comply with the procedures for PLRs found in the Department's regulations at 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110. The purpose of a General Information Letter ("GIL") is to direct taxpayers to Department regulations or other sources of information regarding the topic about which they have inquired. A GIL is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120. You may access our website at www.tax.illinois.gov to review regulations, letter rulings and other types of information relevant to your inquiry.

The nature of your inquiry and the information you have provided require that we respond with a GIL. In your letter you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

In review of the revenue act of Illinois I am looking for a definition of de minimis. This letter is requesting a decision ruling on whether or not the following scenario constitutes nexus:

Total sales everywhere are $51 million with $420,000 in Illinois of which 8% of this number ($33,000) is made on a mobile unit that travels to Illinois once or twice a year. The remaining [sic] 92% of sales to Illinois are accepted and rejected outside the state and are shipped via common carrier. There is no property or payroll within Illinois.

I ask that you please send your response to me via email. I thank you in advance for your assistance.

DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE:

The Department declines to make nexus determinations in the context of Private Letter Rulings or General Information Letters because the amount of information required to make those determinations is often best gathered by an auditor. The following information outlines the principles of nexus. We hope it is helpful to you.

An "Illinois Retailer" is one who either accepts purchase orders in the State of Illinois or maintains an inventory in Illinois and fills Illinois orders from that inventory. The Illinois Retailer is then liable for Retailers' Occupation Tax on gross receipts from sales and must collect the corresponding Use Tax incurred by the purchasers. If a vendor attends an Illinois trade show and accepts a purchase order at that show, that vendor would be making an Illinois retail sale subject to Retailers' Occupation Tax. This would be true even if the vendor later shipped the item or goods from an out-of-State location to the Illinois customer.

Another type of retailer is the retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois. The definition of a "retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois" is described in 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.201(i). This type of retailer is required to register with the State as an Illinois Use Tax collector. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.801. The retailer must collect and remit Use Tax to the State on behalf of the retailer's Illinois customers even though the retailer does not incur any Retailers' Occupation Tax liability.

The United States Supreme Court in Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S.Ct. 1904 (1992), set forth the current guidelines for determining what nexus requirements must be met before a person is properly subject to a state's tax laws. The Supreme Court has set out a 2-prong test for nexus. The first prong is whether the Due Process Clause is satisfied. Due process will be satisfied if the person or entity purposely avails itself or himself of the benefits of an economic market in a forum state. Quill at 1910. The second prong of the Supreme Court's nexus test requires that, if due process requirements have been satisfied, the person or entity must have a physical presence in the forum state to satisfy the Commerce Clause. A physical presence is not limited to an office or other physical building. Under Illinois law, it also includes the presence of any agent or representative of the seller. The representative need not be a sales representative. Any type of physical presence in the State of Illinois, including the vendor's delivery and installation of his product on a repetitive basis, will trigger Use Tax collection responsibilities. Please see Brown's Furniture, Inc. v. Wagner, 171 Ill.2d 410 (1996).

The final type of retailer is the out-of-State retailer that does not have sufficient nexus with Illinois to be required to submit to Illinois tax laws. A retailer in this situation does not incur Retailers' Occupation Tax on sales into Illinois and is not required to collect Use Tax on behalf of its Illinois customers. However, the retailer's Illinois customers will still incur Use Tax liability on the purchase of the goods and have a duty to self-assess and remit their Use Tax liability directly to the State. In such instances, those customers must remit their Illinois Use Tax along with a completed Form ST- 44, Illinois Use Tax Return unless they are otherwise registered or are required to be registered with the Department and remit their Illinois Use Tax with a Form ST-1, Illinois Sales and Use Tax Return. Many retailers that do not have nexus with the State have chosen to voluntarily register as Use Tax collectors as a courtesy to their Illinois customers so that those customers are not required to file returns concerning the transactions with those retailers.

Please be advised that the Department's latest regulatory agenda lists nexus under its anticipated rulemakings for its Use Tax rules. You may want to monitor the Department's website from time to time regarding any rulemakings that it may undertake.

I hope this information is helpful. If you require additional information, please visit our website at www.tax.illinois.gov or contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336.

Very truly yours,
