

■ The Greenville Enterprise Zone Has Been Expanded

TO: Building-Materials Retailers Located within the Corporate Limits of the City of Greenville

Effective February 1, 1993, the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs has approved the expansion of the Greenville Enterprise Zone.

What sales qualify for an enterprise zone exemption?

For the sale to qualify for an enterprise zone exemption from state and local taxes, the following conditions must be met:

- The retailer making the sale must be located within the corporate limits of Greenville.
- The sale must be completed on or after February 1, 1993. (For information concerning exempt sales prior to February 1, 1993, see Informational Bulletin FY 88-9E).

- The sale must consist of building materials that will be incorporated into real estate in the Greenville Enterprise Zone by means of remodeling, rehabilitation, or new construction.
- The improvements must be of the type for which a building permit is required.
- The building project must be approved by the Greenville Enterprise Zone administrator.

What documentation must I maintain in my books and records for each sale?

For each sale, the purchaser must provide the retailer with the following:

- a signed statement indicating the address in the enterprise zone at which the building materials will be incorporated (see the reverse side for an example of a Purchaser's Statement)
- a copy of the building permit

- documentation of the project approval by the Greenville Enterprise Zone administrator

How do I claim an exemption?

To claim an enterprise zone exemption, the retailer must

- report gross receipts from these sales on Line 1 of Form ST-1, Sales and Use Tax Return, and
- write the deductions on Line 12 of the ST-1 Worksheet For Line 2
