

■ Pekin/Tazewell County Enterprise Zone Sales Tax Exemption Amended

TO: Building-Materials Retailers Located within the Corporate Limits of the City of Pekin or the Unincorporated Area of Tazewell County

Effective May 1, 1993, the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs has approved an ordinance to amend the sales tax exemption and expand the boundaries of the Pekin/Tazewell County Enterprise Zone.

What sales qualify for an enterprise zone exemption?

For a sale to qualify for an enterprise zone exemption from state and local taxes, the following conditions must be met:

- The retailer making the sale must be located within the corporate limits of the city of Pekin or the unincorporated area of Tazewell County.

- The sale must be completed on or after May 1, 1993. (For information concerning exempt sales prior to that date, see city of Pekin ordinance no. 1567.)
- The sale must consist of building materials that will be incorporated into real estate located within the Pekin/Tazewell County Enterprise Zone by means of remodeling, rehabilitation, or new construction.
- The improvements must be valued at $25,000 or more and be either
 - for new construction for which a building permit is required or
 - for remodeling or rehabilitation for which a building permit is not required.
- The building project must be approved by the Pekin/Tazewell County Enterprise Zone administrator
- a signed statement indicating the address in the enterprise zone at which the building materials will be incorporated (see the reverse side for an example of a Purchaser's Statement)
- a copy of the building permit (when one is required)
- documentation of the project approval by the Pekin/Tazewell County Enterprise Zone administrator

What documentation must I maintain in my books and records for each sale?

For each sale, the purchaser must provide the retailer with the following:

How do I claim an exemption?

To claim an enterprise zone exemption, the retailer must

- report gross receipts from these sales on Line 1 of Form ST-1, Sales and Use Tax Return, and
- write the deductions on Line 12 of the ST-1 Worksheet for Line 2.
