

■ Saline County Enterprise Zone Sales Tax Exemption Amended

TO: Building-Materials Retailers Located within the Corporate Limits of the City of Eldorado or Harrisburg, the Village of Carrier Mills, Galatia, Muddy, or Raleigh, or the Unincorporated Area of Saline County

Effective April 1, 1993, the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs has approved an ordinance to amend the sales tax exemption and expand the boundaries of the Saline County Enterprise Zone.

What sales qualify for an enterprise zone exemption?

For a sale to qualify for an enterprise zone exemption from state and local taxes, the following conditions must be met:

- The retailer making the sale must be located within the corporate limits of the city of Eldorado or Harrisburg, the village of Carrier Mills, Galatia, Muddy, or Raleigh, or the unincorporated area of Saline County.

- The sale must be completed on or after April 1, 1993. (For information concerning exempt sales prior to that date, see Saline County ordinance no. 41.)
- The sale must consist of building materials that will be incorporated into real estate located within the Saline County Enterprise Zone by means of remodeling, rehabilitation, or new construction.
- The improvements must be of the type for which consent of the Saline County Industrial Development Company is required.

What documentation must I maintain in my books and records for each sale?

For each sale, the purchaser must provide the retailer with the following:

- a signed statement indicating the address in the enterprise zone at which the building materials will be incorporated (see the reverse side for an example of a Purchaser's Statement)

- documentation of the consent by the Saline County Industrial Development Company

How do I claim an exemption?

To claim an enterprise zone exemption, the retailer must

- report gross receipts from these sales on Line 1 of Form ST-1, Sales and Use Tax Return, and
- write the deductions on Line 12 of the ST-1 Worksheet for Line 2.
