

STATE OF ILLINOIS CRADLE-TO-CAREER DATA ENGAGEMENT RESOURCES

This graphic depicts publicly funded statewide websites or applications specifically designed to support stakeholders to engage with data along the cradle-to-career continuum with visualizations and other supports for accessing information. It does not include data files on individual agency websites.

Illinois 60 by 25 Network Dashboard

Data: Labor market info, district/school-level student outcomes, general community characteristics

Audiences: Community Leaders, institutional leaders, intermediary organizations for collective impact partnerships

Purpose: Provides within a community-specified geographic scope key education, workforce, and employment data to support collective impact efforts driving postsecondary and career success

Illinois Early Childhood Asset Map

Data: Available at varied levels of geography

Audiences: Legislators/policy makers, parents, providers, community organizations

Purpose: Provides information about early childhood populations and programs by geography

Illinois Report Card

Data: District-, school-, and subgroup-level

Audiences: School/district administrators, parents, researchers, policymakers

Purpose: Provides detailed information on IL public K-12 education system on performance and outcomes associated with those schools and districts

Illinois Postsecondary Profiles

Data: Institution-, program-, and subgroup-level

Audiences: Prospective students, institutional faculty and leaders, community leaders

Purpose: Supports institutional planning and community partnerships and serves as a resource for students/families in postsecondary planning

ISAC Student Info Portal (Public)

Data: College planning resources related to financial aid, college readiness, the college search & application processes, and jobs and internships

Audiences: Prospective college students and their supporters

Purpose: A college planning resource for prospective students and their supporters

ISAC Student Info Portal (Controlled Access)

Purpose: Enables prospective students to save progress on college applications as well as application- and search-related information

Career Information System (Public)

Data: Career planning resources related to occupations and employment; education; and training, assessments, and links

Audiences: IL residents, including students and job/career seekers

Purpose: Offers career resources to prospective job/career seekers

Career Information System (Controlled Access)

Purpose: Enables prospective job/career seekers to create an online portfolio for storing career information and assessment results

IL workNet (Public)

Data: Career exploration and planning resources related to career areas, job training programs, and salary information, assessments, personalization, and program facilitation tools

Audiences: Prospective education and training program participants, job/career seekers, employers, education and workforce professionals

Purposes: Provides resources and personalized tools that support education/career planning and job seeking (Individuals); hiring, recruiting, and training (Employers); and facilitating education and workforce partnerships (Partners)

IL workNet (Controlled Access)

Audiences: Workforce and education partners, including: LWIA staff, state agency staff, non-LWIA community-based organizations

Purpose: Enables users to save progress on resume creation as well as program applications, assessment outcomes, certificates of completion, and other personalized information- and search-related information

This is also applicable to dashboards utilized by workforce and education partners that log in to facilitate, track, and report on tools

Ed360

Data: Various aggregate- and student-level

Audiences: Teachers, school district administrators

Purpose: Provides role-based access to information on students and outcomes to inform improvement of instruction and interventions by teachers and administrators

ILHighSchool2Career: Mobile App (Public)

Data: Institution- and program-level

Audiences: High School students and parents

Purpose: Provides information on employment and earnings outcomes for those High School students who do not attend postsecondary, those who attend but don't complete, and those who complete postsecondary to inform postsecondary planning by High School students and their parents

ILHighSchool2Career (Institutional Analyst Portal)

Data: Student-level outcomes

Audiences: Authorized administrators and institutional researchers

Purpose: Provides access to workforce outcomes data visualizations and student-level matched microdata—linking High School and career outcomes—for internal research and program improvement purposes

ILCollege2Career: Mobile App (Public)

Data: Institution- and program-level

Audiences: Prospective students and parents

Purpose: Provides information on employment and earnings outcomes for institutions and programs of study to inform postsecondary planning by potential students and their parents

ILCollege2Career (Institutional Analyst Portal)

Data: Student-level outcomes

Audiences: Authorized administrators and institutional researchers

Purpose: Provides access to workforce outcomes data visualizations and student-level matched microdata—linking postsecondary and career outcomes—for internal research and program improvement purposes