

Illinois Centennial Agribusiness Recognition

The Centennial Agribusiness program was established to honor the generations of businesses who have worked to produce, process, and/or distribute agricultural products in Illinois.

Pursuant to 20 ILCS 205/205-15(c), to qualify as a Centennial Agribusiness, a business must:

- Be associated with the producing, processing, or distribution of agricultural products
- AND
- Have operated for 100 or more years
- AND
- Have either the same name, or the same ownership for the entirety of the 100 or more years

Applicants must complete the application and verification forms found on the following pages. These forms request information regarding the present owner and location of the business, a listing of prior owners and/or business names, and third-party verification of records proving ownership/length of operation.

The Secretary of State can verify business name and length of operation – a print out of the Corporation File Detail Report in many cases will be sufficient.

Applicants meeting all requirements of the program are notified by mail. The owner receives an official Centennial Agribusiness sign suitable for outdoor display and a certificate bearing signatures of the Governor of Illinois and the Director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture. All application materials and other papers of historical significance are placed on file at the Illinois Department of Agriculture.

Completed application and verification forms, along with a $50 processing fee, should be sent to:
