New Cases:

10-090-9022 - Jail - The complaint alleges an inmate's inability to access mental health services at the jail, including access to medications. The complaint also states that the inmate was to be transferred to a mental health center and the transfer has not occurred. No reason has been given for the inmate not being transferred. A release was sent on April 2nd and again on April 14th with no response. Jeremy McNamara made the motion to table the complaint pending release and to send another reminder letter regarding the release. The motion was seconded and carried.

10-090-9023 - School District - The complaint alleges that the school would not consider a student's service dog as an accommodation and would not allow the service dog to attend school with the student. The student's school placement was changed due to the service dog. Releases were returned on April 20th. Anne Hicke motioned to accept the complaint; the motion was seconded and carried.

10-090-9024 - Housing Authority - The complaint alleges that the housing authority provides inadequate maintenance to the resident's home. A release was sent on April 16th and again on April 26th with no response. Steven Watts motioned to table the complaint pending release and to send another reminder letter regarding the release. The motion was seconded and carried.

10-090-9025 - School District - The complaint alleges that the school would not allow a student with a stress disorder to go home when the student was feeling stress. The student's parent requested a special education evaluation to set up school services and to get an accommodation that would allow the student to go home when feeling stressed but the evaluation was refused by the school. Also, the student is not being allowed to participate in the school's graduation ceremony due to multiple absences. The student was also bullied while at school. A release was sent on May 7th with no response. Steven Watts motioned to table the complaint pending release and to send another reminder letter regarding the release. If the release is not received by May 30th, then the case will be considered closed. The motion was seconded and carried.
