Attn: V.R. Alla, M.D., President & CEO

Re: Term Sheet With Regard to the Change of Ownership of Quad Cities Kidney Center, Ltd. and United Dialysis Centers, L.L.C. (collectively, the "Seller")

Dear Dr. Alla,

This term sheet will serve to express our mutual understandings with respect to the proposed acquisition by Fresenius Medical Care Quad Cities, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Buyer") of certain assets (the "Assets") of Seller relating to (i) the chronic renal dialysis programs located at the clinics shown on Schedule 1 attached hereto (each a "Center," and collectively, the "Centers"), (ii) the Seller's inpatient acute dialysis programs (the "Acute Programs") to the extent assignable, and (iii) the Seller's home dialysis programs (the "Home Programs"). It will be submitted in support of the Certificate of Exemption Application to be filed with the Illinois Health Facilities and Services Review Board.

For purposes of this Term Sheet, the Centers, the Acute Programs and the Home Program shall be referred to collectively as the "Business."

The Centers will be owned and operated by Buyer, which is a joint venture owned 85% by Fresenius Medical Care Ventures, LLC ("Fresenius") and 15% by Midwest Dialysis Ventures, LLC.

The intended transactions (the "Transactions") are as follows:

1. Purchase Price. Subject to further due diligence, the purchase price (the "Purchase Price") for Fresenius's interest in Buyer shall be Forty Seven Million Three Hundred Eight-Six Thousand Dollars ($47,386,000) plus an amount equal to 85% of the cost of usable inventory of disposable dialysis supplies and pharmaceuticals and prepaid expenses, which shall be payable in cash at the closing of the Transactions (the "Closing"). The Purchase Price is based upon the due diligence investigation undertaken by Fresenius prior to the execution of this Term Sheet, and it is contingent upon the absence of any material adverse changes to such information or material adverse additional information.

2. Assets. The Assets to be acquired by Buyer at Closing will include all of the tangible and intangible assets which comprise or are used, or are held for use in connection with, or are necessary to the operation of, the Business, including, without limitation, all real property leasehold rights, improvements, furniture, fixtures, equipment, supplies, inventory, prepaid expenses, claims and rights under contracts and real estate leases to be assigned to Buyer as set forth below, patient files, lists and records, telephone numbers, Medicare and Medicaid provider numbers and agreements, National Provider Identifier (if Buyer shall elect, in its sole discretion, to accept them), and, to the extent permitted by law, all permits, licenses and other rights held by Seller with respect to the ownership or operation of any or all of the Business, and all of Seller's books and records to the extent relating to the foregoing, in each case, regardless of whether they are on Seller's or a related party's books. All of the Assets shall be transferred to Buyer free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances. Prior to the Closing, Seller shall acquire all right, title and interest in and to any leased equipment that is used in connection with the Business, and such acquired equipment shall constitute part of the Assets; provided, however, the leased dialysis equipment located in patient homes will not be acquired, but such leases may be assumed by Buyer, if permissible under the terms of such leases. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Assets will not include cash, accounts receivable, contracts and leases that are not to be assigned to Buyer as set forth below, and inventory and supplies disposed of from the date hereof until Closing in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

3. No Liabilities. Except for obligations arising on or after the Closing Date under contracts assigned to Buyer and for any employee vacation time assumed by Buyer, Buyer will not assume any of Seller's Liabilities (as defined below), including, without limitation, any Liabilities arising out of the operation of the Business (or any part thereof) or the ownership or use of any of the Assets prior to the Closing Date. "Liability" means any claim, lawsuit, liability, obligation or debt of any kind or nature whatsoever, including without limitation, (a) any malpractice, tort or breach of contract claim asserted by any patient, former patient, employee or any other party that is based on acts or omissions or events occurring before the Closing Date; (b) any amount (including, if applicable, any penalty or interest) due or that may become due to Medicare or Medicaid or Blue Cross/Blue Shield or any other health care reimbursement or payment intermediary or other person or entity on account of any overpayment or duplicate payment or otherwise attributable to any period prior to the Closing Date; (c) any obligation or liability attributable to any period prior to the Closing Date that arises out of any contract, whether or not such contract is assigned to Buyer; and (d) any account payable of Seller. Seller's indemnification obligations for any Liability shall be subject to customary baskets and caps as reasonably agreed to by the parties.

4. Employees. To assist in effecting an orderly transition and to the extent reasonably possible, but ultimately subject to Fresenius's reasonable discretion, direct patient care employees of Seller will be offered positions with comparable levels of responsibility and compensation subject to: (i) such employee's acceptance of new terms and conditions of employment, (ii) the receipt of a formal employment application; (iii) a negative result from each such employee's pre-employment drug screen test; (iv) confirmation that each employee is not, and has never been, excluded, suspended, sanctioned or otherwise restricted from participating in any federal or state health care programs, including but not limited to Medicare or Medicaid; (v) confirmation that each employee agrees to release his or her personnel file to Fresenius; and (vi) satisfaction of Fresenius's other standard hiring criteria. Fresenius will treat service by employees of the Business as service with Fresenius for the same length of time solely for purposes of vesting in benefits offered by Fresenius to its employees. Accrued benefits related to the employees' employment with Seller shall remain the responsibility of Seller, except that Fresenius shall assume up to 80 hours, per employee, of accrued vacation time, and the employees shall be paid for any excess hours. Fresenius shall receive a credit against the Purchase Price for the hours assumed by Fresenius. Seller shall lease the employees to Fresenius for a transitional period of up to 90 days after the Closing to permit Fresenius to hire the employees in an orderly fashion. Fresenius shall reimburse Seller for all costs and expenses of such employees during the transition period.

5. Execution and Closing. The execution of the Purchase Agreement shall take place on a mutually-agreed date subject to the satisfaction of the Closing conditions. If a delayed Closing is required, the Closing shall take place on the first business day of the month following the receipt of the certificate of need approvals required in the State of Illinois. The date the Closing takes place is referred to herein as the "Closing Date".

6. Conditions to Closing. Fresenius's obligation to close the Transactions shall be subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

(a) Due Diligence. Fresenius shall have completed to its satisfaction its due diligence review of the Business, including, without limitation, its assets and liabilities, and Seller shall have furnished to Fresenius and its representatives such information and access to such books and records and personnel as Fresenius may reasonably request for such purpose.

(b) Documentation. The negotiation, execution, and delivery of the Purchase Agreement and related documents, setting forth the terms and conditions of the Transactions and containing such customary provisions, representations, warranties, covenants, and indemnifications, and providing for the receipt by the parties of such ancillary documents, as shall be reasonably acceptable to the parties and their respective counsel.

(c) Medical Director. Buyer shall have executed an Administrative Consulting Services Agreement with Quad Cities Nephrology Associates, P.L.C., LLC for the exclusive provision of medical director services on terms reasonably satisfactory to Fresenius and Quad Cities Nephrology Associates, P.L.C., LLC.

(d) Center Leases.

(i) The landlords for the premises for each Center that is owned by a third party shall have consented in writing to the assignment of the lease for such Center premises to Buyer, subject to Fresenius's reasonable acceptance of such lease and subject to the rent for such lease being at fair market value.

(ii) Seller shall have entered into a lease with Buyer for each of the Centers' premises that is owned by Seller or an affiliate of Seller, on terms reasonably satisfactory to Fresenius and Seller, each at a fair market value rent, triple net, as agreed by Seller and Fresenius.

(e) Acute Agreements. Seller shall have consented in writing to the assignment of the inpatient acute dialysis agreements for the Acute Programs and any necessary third party consents shall have been received.

(f) Regulatory Matters. Buyer shall have received all requisite governmental consents and approvals for the transfer of the Assets contemplated herein, including any certificate of need approvals required by the State of Illinois. Furthermore, the sale of the Assets to Buyer shall be in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws.

(g) Board Approvals. Fresenius shall have received prior to the Closing all necessary board of director and Fresenius Medical Care AG & Co. KGaA Management and Supervisory Board approvals. Fresenius shall use reasonable efforts to bring the Transactions before all such boards in a timely fashion, and such boards shall make their decisions in good faith.

(h) Material Adverse Change. There shall not have been any material adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise) of the assets, properties or operations of the Business or the Assets.

7. Maintenance of Assets. Between the date of this letter and the Closing Date or the termination of the exclusivity period referred to in Paragraph 14 below, whichever occurs first, Seller (a) shall continue to operate the Business and maintain the Assets in the usual and customary manner consistent with past operations, (b) shall use its reasonable efforts to preserve the business operations of the Business intact, to keep available the services of its current personnel, and to preserve the good will and relationships of its suppliers, patients and others having business relations with the Business, (c) shall notify Fresenius in writing of any event involving the Business or Assets that has had or may be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the business or financial condition of the Business or the Assets, and (d) shall not sell, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any assets without Fresenius's consent, except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices.

8. Transition Period. From the date hereof, through the Closing Date and thereafter for a reasonable period of time, the parties will work cooperatively with each other to develop specific transition and integration plans to assure continued quality of care and operating effectiveness following the Closing, including but not limited to a plan to ensure that Buyer does not experience an interruption in reimbursement from Medicare after the Closing Date.
