On Jan: 10: 2016 Sunday Morning getting ready for Church. About 8:30 A.M. I started to had chest pain a little pressure. Once I got Dressed the pressure got even heavy on the right side. I got to the I called my Aunt Dot said for help. I live on a fixed income and I didn't have $200 Bud's Al. I live two blocks from the Hospital so I walked.
Once I got out doors & started walking to the pain let up. As I walked in to the Hospital the Gaurd told you don't look to Good. Ran to get a wheel chair so I would not fall down. The Gaurd ran to the back.

Two nurses ran to me and asked where are you hurting. All I could say chest pain were getting that I couldn't breathe. When the Doctor got to my room. The Doctor called out that this Miss Clark is having a light stroke.
My pain would go across right breast & under my pit down my right arm. My right hand got so heavy that I beat my hand on the bed. It felt like someone was sticking with needle in fingers.
