ORDER

This matter coming before the Commission by a panel of three, Commissioners Diane M. Viverito,<sup>1</sup> Michael Bigger, and Amy Kurson presiding, upon Adrian Robinson’s (“Petitioner”) Request for Review (“Request”) of the Notice of Dismissal issued by the Illinois Department of Human Rights (“Respondent”)<sup>2</sup> of Charge No. 2010CF3218 and the Commission having reviewed all pleadings filed in accordance with 56 Ill. Admin. Code, Ch. XI, Subpt. D, § 5300.400, and the Commission being fully advised upon the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that the Respondent’s dismissal of the Petitioner’s charge for EXPIRATION OF TIME TO FILE A COMPLAINT WITH THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION is SUSTAINED.

DISCUSSION

On April 15, 2010, the Petitioner filed a charge of discrimination with the Respondent alleging that Cook County Recorder of Deeds (“Employer”) suspended him because of his race and sex in violation of Section 2-102(A) of the Illinois Human Rights Act (“Act”). On May 23, 2012, the Respondent dismissed the Petitioner’s charge due to expiration of time to file a complaint with the human rights commission. The Petitioner filed a timely Request.

The Commission finds that the Respondent properly dismissed the Petitioner’s charge. Section 7A-102(G) of the Act details the procedures in place for when the Respondent does not issue a report within 365 days of the filing of a complaint. 775 ILCS 5/7A-102(G). Under the Act, if the Respondent fails to complete its investigation of a charge within 365 days, then a 90-day window opens for a complainant to file a complaint directly with the Commission or in the Circuit Court. The Act further states that if the Petitioner files a complaint with the Commission, “the Department shall immediately cease its investigation and dismiss the charge of civil rights violation.” The Petitioner here filed a complaint with the Illinois Human Rights Commission within the 90-day window provided by the Act, and therefore his charge with the Respondent was properly dismissed. The Respondent’s dismissal does not terminate the Petitioner’s complaint before the Commission.

<sup>2</sup> In a request for review proceeding, the Illinois Department of Human Rights is the “Respondent.” The party to the underlying charge requesting review of the Illinois Department of Human Rights’s action shall be referred to as the “Petitioner.”

Accordingly, the Petitioner has not presented any evidence to show that the Respondent's dismissal of the charge was not in accordance with the Act.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The dismissal of the Petitioner's charge is hereby SUSTAINED.
2. This is a final Order. A final Order may be appealed to the Appellate Court by filing a petition for review, naming the Illinois Human Rights Commission, the Illinois Department of Human Rights, and Cook County Recorder of Deeds as respondents, with the Clerk of the Appellate Court within 35 days after the date of service of this Order.
