

EDWARD COLES FELLOWSHIP

ILLINOIS HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

WINTER 2023

When

January-April, 2023

Where

Hybrid

Michael A. Bilandic Building, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago

<https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/ihrc/about/Pages/Coles.aspx>

We are seeking 1-2 law students for 10-20 hours/week during the winter semester, to work on research and outreach projects in our Office of General Counsel and the Administrative Law Section. Applicants should have completed at least 2 semesters of law school, and should have strong research and writing skills. Experience with pro se litigants preferred.

The externship is unpaid, but students can obtain class credit through their school.

To apply:

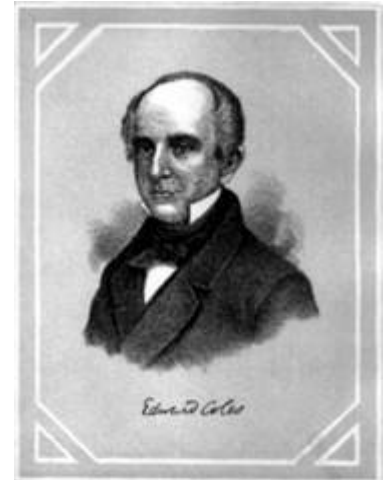

Please email a resume, cover letter, transcript, and writing sample to: Erica Seyburn,

Assistant General Counsel at
HRC.internships@illinois.gov

Deadline: November 1, 2022

For more information:

<https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/ihrc/about/Pages/Coles.aspx>

We are a quasi-judicial state agency, hearing complaints and administrative appeals regarding discrimination and retaliation in employment, housing, financial credit, public accommodations, and education.

We are seeking law students with strong writing skills and a commitment to public service.