ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS
Goldberg welcomed Mehta as the Committee’s newest member. A discussion was had regarding electing a replacement committee chair. Ingram volunteered to serve in that role. Mehta moved (seconded by Ingram) to appoint Ingram as Chair of the Sudan/Iran/Expatriate Restrictions Committee. The motion passed (3-0).

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON SUDAN, IRAN AND EXPATRIATE RESTRICTIONS
Doug Montague (Senior Director Government Relations) and Dennis O’Brien (Counsel for AP Moll Maersk) appealed the company’s inclusion on the Sudan Restrictions list and requested to appear telephonically in furtherance of their appeal. Montague and O’Brien stated that they would submit a supplemental memo to the committee addressing the Committee’s questions. The Committee reviewed a new expatriate list provided by Sustainalytics. Goldberg moved (seconded by Mehta) that Committee recommend to the IIPB that the changes to the Expatriated Entities list as recommended by Sustainalytics be adopted. The motion was approved (3-0). The Committee reviewed new lists for Iran and Sudan Restrictions from ISS-Ethix. A discussion was had regarding whether to adopt ISS-Ethix’s recommendations with respect to Sudan Restrictions. Goldberg moved (seconded by Mehta) that the Committee recommend to the IIPB that the changes to the Sudan list as recommended by ISS-Ethix be adopted. The motion was approved (3-0). A discussion was had regarding whether to adopt ISS-Ethix’s recommendations with respect to Iran Restrictions. Goldberg moved (seconded by Mehta that (i) the Committee recommend to the IIPB that it adopt ISS-Ethix’s recommendations with respect to adding Haldor Topsoe, Iplom, Odfjell Drilling Ltd, and Speedy Ship FZC to the Iran Restrictions list and to remove Saras Raffinerie Sarde SPA from the Iran Restrictions list and (ii) to have MK Gamble follow up with ISS-Ethix as to the other identified entities. The motion was approved (3-0). The Committee recommended that companies newly named be notified that they have been identified for inclusion on the Iran, Sudan and Expatriate Lists prior to being listed publicly.
