Governor Announces Appointment

CHICAGO - Governor Bruce Rauner has appointed Jason Barclay to the Illinois Racing Board. "His extensive legal experience as well as his work on Indiana's Horse Racing Commission will be invaluable to the Racing Board," Rauner said.

Barclay is the general counsel and chief compliance officer for outpatient rehabilitation company Athletico Physical Therapy. He previously served as general counsel for the Office of the Governor as well as a member of the Illinois Board of Education, the Indiana Athletic Commission and Indiana Horse Racing Commission.

A Hinsdale resident, Barclay received a bachelor's degree in political science from Duke University and a law degree from the University of Virginia. He replaces former Board member Robert Schiewe Jr.
