

JRTC Building Closure on Monday, August 10, 2020

Posted: 8/10/2020

MEMORANDUM

TO: All ATTORNEYS and LITIGANTS

FROM: Michael J. Brennan, Chairman

DATE: August 10, 2020

SUBJECT: JRTC Building Closure on Monday, August 10, 2020

Based upon reports of current civil unrest in downtown Chicago, the office of the IWCC at the James R. Thompson Center, will be closed for business today, Monday, August 10, 2020.

No State employees, members of the bar or the public will be allowed entry into the building.

Any filing that must be made by Monday, August 10, 2020 will be accepted as timely when the offices reopen.

This closure will not affect any other location where Arbitrators are scheduled to sit on August 10th.

Please monitor this website to determine when the Commission offices at the JRTC will reopen for business.

All scheduled August 2020 Arbitration Calls will go forward virtually as scheduled. Please see the IWCC website for further information.
