What is CompFile?
What is CompFile?

CompFile is the Illinois Workers’ Compensation Commission’s (IWCC) electronic filing system for managing workers’ compensation cases.

The IWCC is working with Microsoft Consulting Services and WorkComp Strategies to implement the CompFile system.

The implementation will take place in three releases with the first release scheduled for February 2020, the second in Summer 2020, and the last in Fall 2020. We are very excited to bring this system to fruition for the State of Illinois.
CompFile Terms Defined

➢ Pro Se: an individual who chooses to represent oneself (without an attorney) on his or her workers’ compensation case.

➢ Law Firm Administrator: The individual responsible for managing the CompFile account for the law firm. The Law Firm Administrator will send the invitations for attorneys to register within CompFile.

➢ Solo Practitioner or Sole Practitioner: An attorney that practices independently in a law firm that may include non-attorney support personnel but does not include other attorneys.

➢ Portal: This refers to the CompFile system (external facing page).

➢ CRM: Customer Relationship Management is a technology for managing the relationship between the IWCC and its stakeholders that focuses on improved customer service and automated business processes.

➢ IWCC Code Number: All law firms have an IWCC code number assigned to them. Parties who have never filed legal pleadings with the Commission must be assigned an IWCC code number. CompFile automatically adds your IWCC code number to your filings.

    Note: Attorney-specific code numbers will be replaced with law firm code numbers.
ARDC Number: The Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission operates at the direction of the Illinois Supreme Court, which has sole authority to regulate the admission and discipline of lawyers in the state of Illinois.

Attorneys must provide an ARDC Number when they register in the system. The ARDC Number is used to assist the IWCC with the verification of Attorneys.

Who will register in CompFile for Release 1?

SOLO PRACTITIONERS

Solo Practitioners will register in CompFile as their own entity. They share the same ability to invite others to register as part of their solo practice law firm, but, additionally, they have electronic filing rights (since they must provide an ARDC number during registration).

LAW FIRM ADMINISTRATORS

A Law Firm Administrator will register in CompFile for the law firm. The Law Firm Administrator may or may not be an attorney depending on the business practice/preference of the law firm. The Law Firm Administrator, once registered in CompFile, will send invitations to the attorneys within the firm (through the portal) and will manage the permissions of law firm employees.
Who will register in CompFile for Release 1?

ATTORNEYS
Attorneys will register in CompFile after receiving an invitation from the Law Firm Administrator. The Attorney will complete the invitation/registration process and fill out his or her profile in the CompFile system.

NOTE:
Paralegals and Legal Assistants will NOT have their own CompFile accounts. Attorneys may permit such support personnel to use the CompFile system on their behalf.
Who may register in CompFile for Release 1?

PRO SE

Pro Se may register in CompFile during this first release. Going forward, the Pro Se will be able to file an application for adjustment of claim and other legal pleadings in the system as these functionalities become implemented.
